Mr. Babcock is held by his flock.

The Parsonage Society, together with the church members, got together all the good things imaginable and showered them down with a free hand upon their popular pastor. Mr. Babcock cutertained them and accepted their pounding with anything but a wry face, and thanked donors in his usual happy style, saying he believed they were trying to fatten him up for the coming conference, and there was, he admitted, very graciously, some room for avoirdupois improvement. Mr. Eabcock will carry an exceptionally fine report to conference POLITICAL NOTES.

To-morrow night a grand Democratic rally will be held by the Bryan, Sewall, and Lamb Club at the Grays' Armory, covarier Fifteenth and Hall streets. Mr. Hill Montague, of Richmond, will be one of the speakers.

Everything is in readiness for the mass-meeting of the voters of the Manufaster District, Chesterfield, this evening at 8 o'clock. The place of meeting is on Maury street between Fourth and Fifth, and if voters want to hear the plain truth

It is thought that the club will now diaband. While the "McKinley, Hobart, and Lewis" sign has been constantly over the club-room door, and the club-room front adorned with pictures of the gentlemen whose names it bears, there are no signs of activity, and the whole surroundings are funereal and lonesome.

THE WOMAN HELD TO HIM.

He Had Grabbed a Cost, and Will Now Spend Months in Jail.

Mue-coated tutelary gods of Richmond provided but a short docket for his Honor yesterday merning, but it turned out to be not at all void of interest. One case, indeed, glowingly evidenced the fact that woman's pluck and woman's bravery are not all poetic fiction, sung as a lasting proof of man's generosity, but that women have grit, and that that grit sometimes interferes with oily masculine maniputations. Tuesday John Frayser alias John Lee (colored) entered the store of Mrs. J. M. Tiller, on north Second street, and proceeded to invest himself with a coat while the proprietress had her back to him, and, unfortunately for him, was spied by Mrs. Tiller, and before the Fil wheels of his thinking machinery could throw off enough scintillations to light his way out of the difficulty, she grabbed bim. In spite of all the boasted su-premacy of masculine strength and cunning over feminine weakness and sim-plicity, this plucky little woman swung to the thief till the officer came.

Frayser is thoroughly disgusted with himself, and has bagged his head and gone to jail for six months, or eighteen. perhaps, unless he can give $30 security. Here's another good one: Joseph Bland, Sydney Jackson and Martha Ann Taylor were having a good game Tuesday night, and comfortable stakes were to be had and comfortable states were to be had for the asking. Martha's "barrels of money at the bottom of the sea" were fast floating in, and piles of the white coin had drifted to her feet, when, unexpectedly, the light redired from the game, as very soon after did Martha's money. The evidence failed to show that the men had taken the money, but they paid $5 apiece for being disorderly. Grover Cleveland Smith, a boy of some 10 years, was up, charged with being a fugitive from justice, and halls from Newport News. His case was continued till the list to allow the Newport News police to be heard from.

John Lee kneit at the White Temple's shrine to answer the charge of house-breaking and stealing two pistols, a let of china, and some glassware. The was continued to the Ebb for further investigation. Emma Hayes (colored) was run in Tuesday by Sergeant Hall for stealing a lot of children's wearing apparel and other stricles from the house of Mr. Slias She'burne. It was a true bill, and the clothes were found in Emma's house. Justice John gave her six months, but, at the request of Mr. Shelburne, reduced the sentence to ninety days.

John Tyler, the man who was charged with overloading his team, and who had his case continued from last week, was fined $5 and costs.
